Funeral of Charlie Thorne. The life of this well-loved gentleman and keen bell ringer will be celebrated on Friday January 14th at St. Nectan's, Stoke at 2pm. Tea and cake will be served in the church afterwards. From Jane Skinner

Welcome to 2022 with the Information Sheet! You may be delighted that a more 'normal' routine has resumed with a new term starting and less cooking. It's required adaptation for many as to who they have met and when. You may need to relax and take a breath as Jesus did with his disciples after a period of giving out a lot. Pause and think what this Christmas has meant for you. Be thankful for what you have received, then consider if there is anything you need? You may need to give something away! We are in the season of Epiphany, a time to consider the value of gifts given and received. Have we taken time to receive afresh from God? May the Lord restore us and recharge our batteries. Jane

Morning Prayer will be available to watch on the Mission Community Facebook Group from Sunday (private group, so ask to join) and our website (hartlandcoastchurches.org), where you will find it under "services during virus restrictions".*

DAILY HOPE is a Free Phone Line with Hymns, Reflections and Prayers. It is run by the Church of England and offers music, prayers and reflections as well as full worship services from the Church of England at the end of a telephone line.

The Daily Hope phone line is available 24 hours a day on 0800 804 8044

COMPLINE. With the resumption of services following our previous pattern, for the most part, it has been decided to stop the weekly phone service of Compline. Should the situation change again, or should demand prove pressing, it will be easy to reinstate it.

Mission Community Choir. The choir met last month for the first time since March 2020 for a couple of brief practices in order to sing at Hartland's Crib service on Christmas Eve. If anyone would be interested in joining us for the group service for Candlemas to sing at St. Nectan's on January 30th, please get in touch with Stella Draycott (stellahdraycott@btinternet.com) so we can organise music for you for the first rehearsal, which will be held on Friday 14th at 5pm in the Church Rooms, Hartland.
